DAY 04: ATESHGAH AND YANAR DAGH TOUR FROM BAKU

After breakfast at the hotel, we will find out why actually Azerbaijan is called land of fire on a sightseeing tour.

We begin the tour with a visit to Ateshgah. It is a castle-like religious temple in Surakhany town. Here we will visit the Temple of Fire. This sanctuary of eternal fire was built in the 17th century on the site of the oldest temple of the Zoroastrians. Ancient exhibits, located in the cells of Hindu and Zoroastrian hermits, will tell you how these ancient world religions were practiced. The next stop of the tour will be Yanardag, the Burning Mountain. The eternal natural fire, flashing from the depths of the mountain over millions of years, is a unique natural phenomenon. The fiery line surrounding the foot of the summit will give the impression of a country of lights and leave unforgettable memories of the tour.

After the tour, you can spend the day at the Shopping mall in the later half of the day. Baku's hosts a month-long shopping festival twice a year. The city offers a variety of shopping options, including large shopping malls, tiny local specialty shops, and flea markets. The majority of visitors are interested in more than one of those possibilities, however we've compiled a list of the top shopping areas in the city for your convenience.
